NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

OUR FATHER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude! Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

Sunday Readings

Reading 1

Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

R. (2a) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me. O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.

For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me;

O LORD, be my helper.

You changed my mourning into dancing;

O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Reading 2

2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also.

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality.

As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

Cf 2 Tm 1:10

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 5:21-24, 35b-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.

While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out.

He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Congratulations to our Father of the Year 2024!

The Respect Life Ministry sponsored the "Father of the Year" contest in order to highlight the absolutely essential role of the father in our families. We thank and applaud all who submitted an essay; what wonderful examples we were presented with! Congratulations to our winning essayist and her father. We share that essay below:

"200 words are insufficient to capture the essence of my father. As a devout Catholic who has attended church alone since the age of five, he instilled faith in us as the family's patriarch. He is a generous and supportive individual who has traveled to numerous countries, visiting churches in each to express gratitude to God. He has taken me to Fatima and Christ the Redeemer. Following the passing of my exceptional mother, he admirably assumed her role. He is not just my father but also my friend, advisor, a reliable presence, and a hardworking provider who has made sacrifices to ensure our comfort. Even in our adulthood, he continues to support my brother and me in any way he can. Additionally, he cared for his own father, who recently passed away. I am grateful for my parents and brother, and as Father's Day approaches, I dedicate this tribute to him. I am truly blessed to belong to this family, guided by a father whose name reflects his role as a protector and a fighter. May God bless all the devoted fathers worldwide, including my heavenly Father, who has bestowed upon me protection and comfort beyond measure."

SILENT AUCTION – FIESTA 2024

Parishioners,

Fiesta is months away, but our Silent Auction team will soon be working to create more amazing baskets that you can bid on during Fiesta weekend! In addition to soliciting area businesses, we need donations from you!

THANK YOU again to those who generously donated money or items in the past which our team used to make our baskets desirable for so many bidders! We love getting gift cards to area stores and restaurants. Also, gift certificates for services like massages and facials are great. You may not know that airline or credit card miles can often be redeemed for various gift cards. Perhaps you have new unopened items that you would like to re-gift to us and make some room in your closet. Wine and alcohol is always needed. We appreciate whatever you might be able to do. (No clothing or furniture, please).

Not sure if we would be interested in what you have? Contact Renee Gillespie at 714-315-7537. Donations can be dropped off at the church office during the office hours. (Do not leave outside, please). DO attach your name and contact information to the item(s) so we know who it's from. And be sure to pick up a donation form for your records. Please act now! The sooner we get donations, the sooner we can assemble baskets!

Sincerely,

Renee Gillespie & Chris Born
