OUR PARISH MISSION

We the people of San Antonio parish strive to be a community of faith, hope, and love. We find our identity and mission in Jesus Christ and His Gospel. We celebrate our life as Catholic Christians in word, worship, and service. By recognizing our baptism, we accept our call to personal renewal and reach out with the gospel message to families and individuals, extending an invitation to fellowship with us.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

One of the most touching YouTube videos I've ever seen is one in which a deaf woman receives new technology to heal her hearing. She hears her husband's voice for the first time — and her own, too — and bursts into tears of overwhelming joy. It must have been like an immovable wall between her and her loved ones came tumbling down. We are all like this woman, to some degree. We believe in the presence of God's love, but we can't hear Him. We can't speak well about Him. The deaf man who can't speak properly in the Gospel today is an image of what God wants us to experience again and again. Jesus takes the man aside to a private place away from the crowd, touches his ears and tongue, and says, "Ephphata!" The man's ears are opened, and he speaks clearly. Contact with Christ has this effect on us. This experience happens to us in our baptism, almost exactly. It happens to us in the liturgy. It happens in our private prayer. It happens when we hear the voice of God in our conscience. The more we engage these privileged channels of Jesus' healing, the more we are empowered to hear and speak of the presence of God's perfect love.

READING 1

Wis 7: 7-11

I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire. Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep. Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17

R. (14) Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us, for the years when we saw evil.

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Let your work be seen by your servants and your glory by their children; and may the gracious care of the LORD our God be ours; prosper the work of our hands for us! Prosper the work of our hands!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

READING 2

Heb 4:12-13

Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

1 Jn 4:12

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Mk 10:17-27

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Love in Action

To honor and recognize the dedicated catechists from Religious Education and OCIA, we held a special blessing for them at the 10:00am Mass on September 15. This was a wonderful opportunity to show our appreciation for their hard work and enduring commitment to nurturing our faith community here at San Antonio! Special thanks to Msgr. Tuan and Deacon Doug, who prayed over these amazing volunteers and sent them forward with a beautiful blessing as they begin their new year. Let us all journey together in faith, supporting one another in love and service!

Growing Together in Faith: RE Opening Week!

We are gathering once again for our Religious Education programs, now named Faith Factory and Rooted! While we began our gatherings (formerly classes) this week, we still want to extend a heartfelt WELCOME to all families in our program! If you haven't joined our program yet, don't fret! Our online registration is still open, and we would love to have your family join us! Our children and their families enrich our community, and we are grateful for the fellowship we share in Christ. This year, we will deepen our faith together through prayer, reflection, service, and fun! We look forward to continually seeing our campus come alive with the sound of laughter, excitement, and joy in the Lord!

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

"Who can be saved?" the apostles wonder. Who can be good enough? Smart enough? Holy enough? Jesus reminds them that no one can be — not without asking for help. We all need help to be holy. Never tire of asking for the help you need.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

On the first Tuesday of the month, after the weekday 8:30am Mass, presiding clergy will provide the Anointing of the Sick for those who stay after Mass. The next Anointing will be on November 5, 2024.

GRIEF SUPPORT MINISTRY

Mission Statement: To offer care, comfort, fellowship for those experiencing the loss of a loved one. We strive to provide an emotionally safe environment for the bereaved to freely express their grief, without judgement.

We host Grief Support meetings in Conference Room 1 the first and third Saturday of each month, 9:30 to 11am. Our group leader is Elizabeth Gooch. Should you have any questions, please contact Fr. Tuan: priest102@sanantoni church.org

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

We meet Tuesdays 9:00-11:00am in the MPR. Our fall study is on the Liguori commentary book, Biblical Novellas, on Tobit, Judith, Esther, and 1 & 2 Maccabees. For questions, contact Jeanne Carden through the San Antonio website, sanantoni church.org, and select Ministries.

Dear Family Members,

We once again express our condolences to your family as we are reminded that on Saturday, November 2, 2024, Catholics around the world celebrate the annual ALL SOULS DAY memorial. This holy day is set aside to remember, honor, and pray for our faithful departed loved ones. At San Antonio de Padua Church, we are offering a memorial Mass in memory of all from our parish and for those who had funerals of loved ones at our parish this year. We invite you and your families to join us on Saturday, November 2, for the 10:00am morning Mass to remember, honor, and pray for your deceased loved one. Roses will be handed out to family members so that when your loved one's name is announced, you can bring the rose up to the altar. If you would like to bring a memento of your loved one, there will be a table set up near the altar. Please contact the front office to advise how many in your family would like to have a rose.

Kind regards,
Becki Krupsky

WHY WORLD MISSION SUNDAY MATTERS

World Mission Sunday, observed on October 20th this year, is not just another Sunday; it is a powerful reminder of our call to be missionaries. The collection taken up on this day is unique as it is mandated by the Code of Canon Law and is essential for the survival and growth of the Church in mission territories.

These funds support the pastoral and evangelizing work of the Church, including building churches, providing healthcare and education, and training future priests and religious. In places where resources are scarce, your generosity makes a profound difference. As we reflect on the theme "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," let us remember that our participation and support help invite countless souls to the feast of God's love.
