THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE LORD

OUR GOD IS LORD ALONE.

MARK 12:29

OUR PARISH MISSION

We the people of San Antonio parish strive to be a community of faith, hope, and love. We find our identity and mission in Jesus Christ and His Gospel. We celebrate our life as Catholic Christians in word, worship, and service. By recognizing our baptism, we accept our call to personal renewal and reach out with the gospel message to families and individuals, extending an invitation to fellowship with us.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gospel Meditation

BY FATHER JOHN MUIR

Americans have long been fascinated with public debates. Farmers stood in muddy fields for hours to hear Lincoln and Douglas dispute each other in the 1860 presidential run-up. The televised debate between Kennedy and Nixon in 1960 fascinated the nation. These days, cable news outlets and social media parse every word spoken by candidates. We still love seeing public, rational disputes in the service of our nation. In his day, Jesus also captured attention as a public debater. Mark tells us, “And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, ‘Which commandment is the first of all?’” Jesus’ brief but all-encompassing response is the double command to love God and neighbor. Notice that he includes the importance of loving God with “all your mind.” Loving God is not simply a question of affection, loyalty, good deeds, and religious dedication. It demands honest and intense intellectual engagement — just like an accomplished debater. How do we do this practically? One simple way is by embracing ourselves as life-long learners. Setting aside time for reading, book studies, online classes, and, perhaps most difficult, engaging in open, honest, and curious conversation with those who think differently from us. These are all great ways to love God with our minds. Our country and our Church depend greatly on souls who love God in this way with their minds. Let’s commit to loving God with all our minds in tireless pursuit of truth.

Sunday Readings

READING 1

Dt 6:2-6

Moses spoke to the people, saying: "Fear the LORD, your God, and keep, throughout the days of your lives, all his statutes and commandments which I enjoin on you, and thus have long life. Hear then, Israel, and be careful to observe them, that you may grow and prosper the more, in keeping with the promise of the LORD, the God of your fathers, to give you a land flowing with milk and honey. "Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone! Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today."

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

R. (2) I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, O LORD, my strength,
O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold! Praised be the LORD, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The LORD lives! And blessed be my rock! Extolled be God my savior. You who gave great victories to your king and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

READING 2

Heb 7:23-28

Brothers and sisters: The levitical priests were many because they were prevented by death from remaining in office, but Jesus, because he remains forever, has a priesthood that does not pass away. Therefore, he is always able to save those who approach God through him, since he lives forever to make intercession for them. It was fitting that we should have such a high priest: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, higher than the heavens. He has no need, as did the high priests, to offer sacrifice day after day, first for his own sins and then for those of the people; he did that once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints men subject to weakness to be high priests, but the word of the oath, which was taken after the law, appoints a son, who has been made perfect forever.

Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord; and my father will love him and we will come to him.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Mk 12:28b-34

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone!

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.

The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.' And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Faith Formation

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

CARVING FAITH!

This past week, Mrs. Box and Mrs. Clarke's Year 2 group gathered for a special activity that brought both creativity and faith together: carving a pumpkin together using The Pumpkin Prayer! It was a wonderful time of fellowship and fun as the children not only enjoyed the fall tradition but also learned how even something as simple as a pumpkin can reflect God's love and light.

As the group carved their pumpkin, they prayed together, using each step of the carving to symbolize a part of our spiritual journey. The Pumpkin Prayer guided them through the process, reminding them that, just like the pumpkin, we are created by God, cleansed of our sins, and filled with His light.

The room was filled with a glowing reminder of how God's light shines through us when we open our hearts to Him. It was a beautiful and meaningful experience for the children, as they learned that, just like the pumpkin, we are called to be vessels of His light to the world.

We are so thankful for these moments that help our kids grow in their faith, and we encourage everyone to remember that God's light is always within us, shining brightly for all to see!

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

Christ tells us that we must love God with all our heart, all our soul, all our mind and all our strength.

Live that love loudly.

Hold nothing back.

Give God all you have.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Nov. 2nd & 3rd ALL MASSES
Donations benefit local pregnancy resource centers.

Suggested Donations:
Unwrapped baby clothes, cribs, pack-n-plays, gift cards, diapers, and other baby items.

Cash and checks are always welcome!

SCRIPTURE REFLECTIONS

First Reading:
Moses taught the Israelites the importance of passing on the faith and keeping the Jewish prayer, the great Shema ("Hear, O Israel..."). What are some faith traditions your family practices?

Second Reading:
In Hebrews we hear that Jesus is the eternal and perfect high priest who intercedes for us before God. Do you have a friend or co-worker who needs you to pray for them this week?

Gospel:
Jesus and the scribe find common ground on agreeing that the two greatest commandments are to love God and our neighbor. Do you value making peace with people you disagree with?

MARY & JOSEPH RETREAT CENTER

Beyond Inheritance: What do you want your family legacy to be?

Dennis Branconier, Retired Financial & Estate Planner
Saturday, November 9, 2024, 9:00 am to 2:30 pm

Cost: $50 Per Person / $75 Per Couple / lunch included
"What we leave in our children should concern us more than what we leave to our children" (anonymous).
This workshop is meant to help you integrate your most treasured values into your most enduring decisions. In what ways will you effectively communicate your legacy intentions to your heirs? How can you do so in a way that conveys your faith, your hope and your love? In a guided format, you will be encouraged to privately draw from your own spiritual maturity to lead to practical action. There is no technical, legal, financial or product material involved. Having retired from a 35-year career in financial and estate planning, Dennis has turned his attention to addressing family legacy decisions that typically go untouched by technical professional advisors. He holds a masters degree in counseling psychology. Dennis and his wife, Kathleen, live in Rancho Palos Verdes and enjoy time and wisdom-moments with their three daughters and sons-in-law and six grandchildren.
For registration questions, call José at (310) 377-4867 ext 250 or email him at jsalas@maryjoseph.org.
